In a two to four page synopsis evaluate the performance of your bridge/beam:

1. Write about the philosophy of the design, and whether you would change it based on the results.
2. Answer how you could have designed a better bridge/beam.
3. Write about your construction techniques, answering whether just improved construction methodology would have improved the outcome.
4. Give supporting examples, where applicable.